“Nature is impersonal, awe-inspiring, elegant and it's geometrically perfect.” Located on the central south part of Nepal, Chitwan is best known for its wildlife and culture activities as the word Chitwan literally means the "heart of the jungle", majorly because of its available dense forests and wild animals. Our Chitwan Tour is designed to provide you with an opportunity to explore the lush vegetation and exotic wildlife of Chitwan National Park while gaining deep insights into the local Tharu community. Our Chitwan Tour takes you away from the bustling streets of Kathmandu city and into the warmer but thriving ecosystem of Chitwan region. Just so you know, Chitwan National Park is approximately 165 km away from Kathmandu valley and presents a lot of natural wonders to anyone who visits the place. Upon reaching Chitwan, you can surely notice the change in the climate and landscape at once. Beyond doubt a visit to Chitwan lets you uncover an abrupt side of Nepal with an alluring aspect to take you closer to its mesmerizing wildlife. Situated in the Terai region close to the Indian territory, the national park consists mainly of timberland and meadows which hosts as a home for several animals and plants. Our touring days shall be spent while wandering into the wild territories by walking to view One-horned Black Rhinoceros and Bengal Tigers, Sloth Bear, panther, wilderness felines, wild pig, otter, Langur, Rhesus and the Macaque Monkey. Alternatively, you can experience this wild world by a 4-wheel drive by a jeep or elephant back ride which helps you can go deep into the heart of the park while observing some of the rare species of flora and fauna. Later we end our tour by taking a drive back to the medieval city of Kathmandu.
