If you truly wish to experience a spectacular cultural home stay type of trip in Nepal then why not join our Ganesh Himal Homestay Trek which is designed to take trekkers close to the rural communities of the Ganesh Himal trekking region while making sure that they encounter extreme natural and cultural diversities. Starting off from the bustling capital city of Kathmandu, our 7 days Ganesh Himal Home Stay Challenging Trek takes us towards Syabrubesi town which is situated at an altitude of 1,462 meters above sea level. Leaving Syabrubesi behind, we are going to make our way towards another scenic hill village of Gatlang which can take us more than 5 hours to reach from Syabrubesi. Here you can enjoy the lovely welcoming affection of the indigenous ethnic communities while getting a phenomenal view of the surrounding hills and mountains. Moving forward, we now trek further ahead toward a revered site of Parvati Kund and then to Yuri Kharka. Upon reaching here, we are going to enjoy the scenic mountain view and have our lunch before continuing our journey towards Somdang village (3,271m). Next, we have to cross a high pass of Pangsang Pass which has a high elevation of 3,842 meters above sea level. After crossing this fantastic pass, we shall reach Tipling village that can take us 6 to 7 hours to reach from Somdang village. Likewise, we will visit Borang and Darkha Gaun one by one and later on conclude our trek by descending down to Darkha Phedi and Dhading Besi for a drive back to the capital city of Kathmandu. Anyone with an above average physical capability to walk for 5-6 hours in a hilly terrain can join in this trek. We additionally, prefer March to May and September to November as the best time of the year for this trek.
