Gosaikunda Heli Tour or Gosaikunda Heli Trekking is the visit into sacred Gosaikunda Lake which is one of the major pilgrimage sites in Nepal. According to myth, Gosaikunda Lake was manifested by Lord Shiva himself as a resting place to soothe his aching throat when he drank Kalkut poison to save the world from annihilation. Many devotees claim to actually see Lord Shiva sleeping peacefully and covering the entire Lake. Great fare is organized to ease up the burning when he could not said to be the resting place for Lord Shiva. Great fare is organized at Gosaikunda Lake during Janai Purnima during which Gosaikunda receives influx of Shamans, Buddhists and Hindu devotees. Janai Purnima falls each year in the full moon of Bhadra which coincides with the English month of August. Along with Gosaikunda, the region holds 9 other lakes including Bhairab kunda, Saraswoti Kunda and Surya Kunda. Gosaikunda Heli Tour offers close-up views of Langtang Lirung, Langshisha Ri, DorjeLakpa, Sisapangma, Gaurishankar, Kimshung and Langtang Ri mountains. Existing to the north of Kathmandu, this religious site is 2 days of walk away from Dhunche (1950m) and is about 132km far from Kathmandu.
