â€œSurely, of all the wonders of the world, the horizon is the greatest.â€ Go on a valid off the beaten path trek alongside stunning mountain vistas on our 24 days Kanchenjunga Trek. Going towards the segregated districts of eastern Nepal, you get the opportunity to stroll on an extremely grand mountain trail loaded with rhododendron timberland and witness tremendous social assorted qualities as you go passing a few nearby towns inside this wonderful locals. In conclusion, see the shimmering stars above you as you set down to rest and make a vital trip to Nepal amid your trek. Arranged at the stature of 8,586m, Mt. Kanchenjunga is the third most elevated mountain on the planet and is the second most elevated mountain in Nepal as it is only 300 meters shorter than Mt. Everest. The word Kanchenjunga actually signifies "Five Treasures of Snow" which means the Tibetan dialect as there are five summit tops inside and out in Kanchenjunga. A trek to see this extolling mountain takes you on an extremely burdensome excursion as it is profoundly secluded far from the advanced frameworks, for example, transportation. This makes making a trip toward the eastern districts of Nepal more troublesome as it is not broadly available, henceforth the person who sets out to visit this place can without much of a stretch see that there are less number of outside trekkers here if contrasted with other well-known trekking areas of Nepal like Annapurna and Everest locales. Thus alone, it is regularly believed that the Kanchenjunga Trek is one of the best off the beaten treks done in Nepal. At first, we take off to Suketar airport and then make a beeline for Lalkharka and Khesewa villages. Afterward, we ascent furthermore to reach Cheram village via Yamphudin & Tortong where we are to acclimatize. The following day we shall explore around Ramche and visit the Yalung Base Camp (4500m). Continuing on with our trek, we also visit the Kanchenjunga Base Camp on our sixteenth day of the trek. Later on, we start descending down to Suketar via Pangpema to Lhonak and Phurumbu villages for a flight back to Kathmandu. Trekkers with a better than expected physical wellness and legitimate well-being conditions to adapt to high altitude can be a piece of this trek. Furthermore, the regular months of April to May and September to November are considered as the finest time for a trek to Kanchenjunga area of Nepal. Need to experience this other common trek to see the excellent statue of Mt. Kanchenjunga, then contact, Himalayan Holyland Treks & Expedition at this moment and join this trek with our professional trekking staff of personnel's.

From Kathmandu we get an early morning flight to Suketar which is located in the eastern region of Nepal. It is a simultaneous ascent and descent on a trail that mostly passes through lush green forests all the way to Lalikharka.

Day 04: Lalikharka to Khesewa (2120m/6,955ft)

We begin our trek to Khesewa after breakfast. It is mostly an easy descent until Phundrawa. From here we begin our ascent. It is a steep climb until Yangpang from where we climb steadily up until Phumphe Danda followed by another ascent to Khesewa. Our trek will be through forests and small villages. Overnight in Khesewa.

Day 05: Khesewa to Mamankhe (1785m/5,856ft)

After breakfast we begin our trek towards the Kabeli Khola. Next, we walk on a trail that passes through forests before crossing a small stream. On the way, we enjoy amazing views of the Himalayan peaks while also passing through several beautiful small villages. Overnight in Mamankhe.

Day 06: Mamankhe to Yamphudin (2080m/6824ft)

Today's trek will be mostly uphill on an easy trail whereby we mostly walk alongside the Kabeli Khola. During the walk we also admire the beautiful ridge behind the stream. We continue our walk and admire a beautiful waterfall nearby. After walking for some time, we cross a small suspension bridge. We pass through small settlements before reaching Yamphudin to spend the night.

Day 07: Yamphudin to Tortong village

We begin our walk on a path commonly used by the villagers and pass through terraced farms and green meadows. Along the way, we have the constant company of the Himalayas to enjoy. Our walk will be on a trail along the Amji Khola. We also cross a pass at Lassiya Bhanjyang before reaching Tortong. Overnight in Tortong.

Day 08: Tortong to Cheram (3,870m/12,696ft)

We begin our steady climb to Cheram after breakfast. Our trail is right at the side of the Simbuwa Khola. We enjoy walking on the beautiful Lalung valley and have Tuplung peak for company for the most part of today's journey. We pass through thick rhododendron forest and enjoy the magnificence of the Yalung Glacier. Overnight in Cheram.

Day 09: Cheram-Acclimatization and Rest day

We spend a day in Cheram which will help us acclimatize to the high altitude. We can spend the rest of the day resting and taking part in small hikes. We can explore the areas around the Yalung Glacier. There is also a viewpoint for Kabaru and Rathong peaks. Overnight in Cheram.

Day 10: Cheram to Ramchaur (Ramche) (4,580m/15,026ft)

We begin our short trek after breakfast. From Cheram, we ascend for sometime before reaching the snout of the Yalung Glacier. It is a beautiful walk on a valley trail. We also cherish the views of several Himalayan peaks. We pass through a small settlement of Lapsang before reaching Ramche. Overnight in Ramche.

Day 11: Ramchaur (Ramche) to Yalung Base Camp (4500m), back to Cheram

From Ramche, we walk further up the valley. We then follow a stream before climbing on the moraine top until confronted by Kanchenjunga's southern face. We walk further ahead for a glimpse of the Jannu Himal. We continue our trek further towards the Oktang Monastery. From here, we climb further up and reach the Yalung Base Camp. The views from the base camp are extraordinary. Kumbakarna (Jannu), Nyukla Lachung and other Himalayan peaks are close by. We descend and spend the night at Cheram.

Day 12: Cheram to Sele La (4290m/ 14,074ft)

We begin our trek after breakfast. We cross four passes today beginning with Sinelapche Bhanjyang. After crossing the pass we continue to Mirgin La pass. We continue trekking and reach the Sinion La pass which is not very far. From here, we ascend to Sele La pass. There are prayer flags strung across one of the steeper sections of the trail which is very near to the Sele La pass. We cross the pass. Overnight in Sele La.

Day 13: Sele La to Ghunsa (3,595/11,794)

We begin our trek after breakfast. We walk towards the north with Tangbgharma Danda nearby. We reach a Chorten marked by prayer flags which marks the start of a steep trail.
