

Kathmandu Exploring by Rickshaw-01 Day

Duration: 1 Day Days

Overview

| | |
|--|---|
| Trip Grade: Easy | Max Altitude: 1300 M |
| Activity: Exploring Tour by Rickshaw | Group Size: |
| Arrival On: Kathmandu, Nepal | Departure From: Kathmandu, Nepal |
| Meals: All meals during trek & breakfast in kathmandu | Accommodation: Stone Built Houses (tea houses) during trek |

Explore at the beautiful palaces, temples, ancient bazaars and local lifestyle as your driver pedals through the old, narrow streets of Kathmandu. Rickshaws are a popular mode of transportation for anyone who wishes to explore the intricate gullies spread across the Kathmandu Durbar Square, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and its nearby areas. While exploring Kathmandu on a rickshaw we also pass through Ason, the busiest bazaar in the city that sells anything from dried buffalo meat to a variety of spices, electronics and textiles. A part of this journey also includes visiting the Hanuman Dhoka Museum located in the Kathmandu Durbar square which highlights the life of King Tribhuvan (1906-1955) who helped free the country from the Rana regime. Join us for a rickshaw tour if you wish to savor foreign history and cultural traditions in a ride that is as much a part of a tradition as the places you visit and the lifestyle you will admire. Your unique experience trip with Himalayan Holyland Treks and Expedition. Departure time: Daily at 9 am
Departure place: Himalayan Holyland Treks and Expedition Pvt. Ltd. Note: Hanuman Dhoka Museum is open from 10:30am to 3:00pm every day except Tuesdays. On Friday it is open from 10:30am to 2:00pm.

Itinerary

Full Day Exploring Tour by Rickshaw in Kathmandu Valley.

Explore at the beautiful palaces, temples, ancient bazaars and local lifestyle as your driver pedals through the old, narrow streets of Kathmandu. Rickshaws are a popular mode of transportation for anyone who wishes to explore the intricate gullies spread across the Kathmandu Durbar Square, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and its nearby areas. While exploring Kathmandu on a rickshaw we also pass through Ason, the busiest bazaar in the city that sells anything from dried buffalo meat to a variety of spices, electronics and textiles. A part of this journey also includes visiting the Hanumandhoka Museum located in the Durbar square which highlights the life of King Tribhuvan (1906-1955) who helped free the country from the Rana regime.

Cost Includes

- => Experienced English speaking tour guide
- => T-shirt from company.
- => City map of visiting sites.
- => All government taxes.
- => Trip completion certificate.

Cost Excludes

- => Lunch.
- => Entry fees of monuments & heritage sites.
- => Tips to Guide and Driver
- => Personal extra expenses.

