The exquisite Sirubari Home Stay Trek is a one a kind home stay trek that goes inside the western territories of Nepal. Stunning Himalayan views of the entire Annapurna himalayan range and a personal up-close experience of the ethnic villages are some of the major highlights of this trek. After your arrival in Kathmandu, you are presented with a very enlightening sightseeing tour of the Kathmandu valley which gives you ample time to explore the popular UNESCO World Heritage Sites of the capital city such as Boudhanath, Swoyambhunath, Pashupatinath and Kathmandu Durbar Square. Taking trekkers away from the hectic busy city life, our 10-day Sirubari Trek starts with a 7-hour long drive to Pokhara from the capital Kathmandu city. Enjoy the spectacular mountain view along with the heart-captivating Phewa Lake during your stay in Pokhara. Then onward, we move towards Sirubari via Arjunchupari which be done by taking a private vehicle for a 4-hour long drive. In addition, a local bus takes about 6 hours to reach the Sirubari village from Pokhara so it's preferable to choose a private jeep if you like to save time on the road. We are planned to spend 2 entire days in Sirubari village and during those days, we get to discover the exotic rural lifestyle of the indigenous people who traditionally and historically have lived here for many years. You can explore around and visit the Dahare Hill area where stammeringly beautiful mountain views lie in wait for travelers who visit it. Taste the locally cooked and prepared cuisines and learn about their cultural practices and norms before heading back to the famous lake city of Pokhara. Similarly, like before, we are now going to take the drive away from Pokhara and head to Kathmandu where we officially end our trek. This trek, in general, is perfect for travelers who have a short time in their hand to explore the culturally enriched trekking routes of Nepal. Moreover, a not much physical effort is needed to be shown during the trekking period which makes it very easier and straightforward. Also, we suggest Spring and Autumn seasons are the top finest seasons for trekking to Sirubari village.
